COMMUNICATION.

OFFICE OF STATE LIBRARIAN,
Jackson, Miss., Jan. 1st, 1882.

To his Excellency J. M. Stone, Governor of the State of Mississippi:

SIR: I have the honor to present through you to the Legislature of Mississippi, the Report of the State Librarian and Keeper of the Capitol, for the years 1880-'81.

Respectfully,

MARY MORANCY,
Acting Librarian.

REPORT.

STATE LIBRARY,
JACKSON, MISS., January 1, 1882.

To the Legislature of the State of Mississippi:

I have the honor herewith to transmit to your honorable body the annexed report of this department of the public service, with a list of the books added to the Library for the years 1880–81.

I have also included the books added for the years 1878–79, making a catalogue of all the books added to the Library since the general catalogue made in 1877.

The Library has greatly increased since 1876, both in size and value, until it is now the first law library in the Southern States, and takes rank with the four best in the Union.

Library No. 1 contains about fifteen thousand law books. Library No. 2, about sixteen thousand volumes, chiefly public documents, journals, duplicates, etc., etc. The books in each Library are arranged, classified and labelled so as to as to make it as convenient as possible. The use of the Library is constant and continuous. Almost every hour of every day in the year persons require access to the books. The Librarian is compelled to employ an assistant, as the Library is too valuable to be neglected, and the duties too arduous for one person.

The appropriation for the Library for each year was eight hundred dollars; the expenditure was for books, express, freight, postage, shelving and carpeting.

There was no appropriation made for the Capitol expenses, and all bills were referred to the Governor, and paid out of the contingent fund.

The expenditure for the Capitol and grounds was for repairs necessary for keeping the building in tolerable condition, and render it habitable; for purchasing carpets and covering for the several departments, for stoves, repairing windows, cisterns, ceilings, walks, etc., etc.
